Joanna Kolber is a partner in our Dispute Resolution Law practice.

Joanna has solid experience as an arbitrator, secretary to arbitral tribunals and as counsel in commercial ad hoc or institutional arbitration (CEPANI, NAI, ICC) and litigation spanning various industries such as construction, energy, insurance and reinsurance and M&A.

She started her career as a lawyer in 2012. Before joining Strelia in September 2013, she was an associate at an international law firm in Antwerp.

Before that, she was an assistant at the Institute of Private International Law at Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and worked as a private international lawyer at Kruispunt Migratie Integratie (Expertisecentrum voor Vlaanderen-Brussel).

Joanna also briefly worked at PSEG Global Inc. (Newark, USA), Knarr-Knopp Zimmer Müller (Darmstadt, Germany) and Kaczor Klimczyk Pucher Wypiór (Krakow, Poland).

Languages

English, Dutch, Polish, German and French

Education

Joanna obtained her law degree from Jagiellonian University of Krakow, Poland in 2006.

She also obtained a Diploma from the Schule des Deutschen Rechts (Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg, Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz, Jagiellonian University) in 2005, a Diploma from the School of American Law (Columbus School of Law, The Catholic University of America, Jagiellonian University) in 2004 and from the Academy on International Arbitration, Central-Dis in Cologne, Germany in 2007.

Admission

Joanna was admitted to the Brussels Bar. She has been a Belgian lawyer since 2012.
