Olivier Clevenbergh is a partner in the Corporate and M&A practice. He also handles dispute resolution matters.

He is currently the firm's Managing Partner.

Olivier assists clients in dispositions and acquisitions of businesses (shares and assets), mergers and company restructurings, both nationally and internationally. He also has specific expertise in commercial contracts organizing forms of cooperation between companies, such as joint ventures and franchise agreements.

Olivier combines his transactional activity with a contentious practice covering the same areas. He therefore also represents clients in litigation, before the courts and in arbitration, in the field of corporate and contract law.

His dispute resolution activity relates in particular to post-acquisition claims (representations and warranties, price adjustment, earn-out, non-competition undertakings, etc.), conflicts between shareholders, pre-contractual liability and directors' duties and liability. He also provides advice in these areas.

Olivier is one of the few Belgian lawyers to be ranked by the legal directories for both his transactional and his litigation practice. Thanks to this combination, he is well equipped to protect his clients in a practical way when negotiating and drafting agreements and he is fully aware of the deals' mechanics of acquisition transactions and shareholders' agreements when litigating.

Admission

Olivier was admitted to the Brussels Bar in 1989 and to the Luxembourg Bar (List IV) in 2024. He was admitted as a solicitor of England and Wales in 1995.

Education

Olivier obtained his law degree from Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB) in 1989 and a specialised degree (Licence spéciale) in Economic Law from the same university in 1991.
